In preparation for our worship today

We Come, O Christ, to You

Words by Margaret Clarkson; Music by John Darwall

“Before the throne absolved we stand” declares the hymn writer. It is because of this reconciling work of Christ that the writer of Hebrews says, “Let us then approach the throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need” (Hebrews 4:16, NIV).

I Will Glory in My Redeemer

Words and Music by Steve & Vikki Cook

The words of this hymn help us to personalize the work of Christ accomplished at the cross for us. Each of us can say with the song writers, “Mine was the sin that drove the bitter nails, and hung Him on that judgment tree” and yet, “My life He bought, my love He owns.”

Hallelujah, What a Savior!

Words and Music by Philip P. Bliss

“He was despised and rejected by men, a man of sorrows, and familiar with suffering. Like one from whom men hide their faces he was despised, and we esteemed him not” (Isaiah 53:3, NIV). The one who endured such rejection was also the one who “in [our] place condemned He stood” and “sealed [our] pardon with His blood.”

When I Survey the Wondrous Cross

Words by Isacc Watts; Music: Based on a Gregorian chant; arr. by Lowell Mason

Today we read that Jesus “for the joy set before him endured the cross, scorning its shame” (Hebrews 12:2, NIV). With his example in mind our hymn calls us to likewise “pour contempt on all [our] pride” and to sacrifice “all the vain things that charm [us] most.”

Turn Your Eyes upon Jesus

Words & Music by Helen H. Lemmel

Our Scripture passage for today teaches us that in order to run the race set before us our eyes must remain fixed upon Jesus Christ. As a result, we can expect that “the things of earth” which compete for our attention “will grow strangely dim in the light of his glory and grace.”

Praise & Prayer July 18, 2010

“And pray in the Spirit on all occasions with all kinds of prayers and requests. With this in mind, be alert and always keep on praying for all the saints.” (Ephesians 6:18)
